We are in the capital, where the first sight is, the Colosseum. This is where the gladiators fought. Now we have to move 1.6 km to the west, where we will find the Trevi Fountain, where you throw a coin to be lucky. Now we will go 2.9 km further west, where we can see the Vatican.

We'll continue to Milan, in the center of which we can find a church, the Milan Cathedral, which is located near the Vittorio Emanuele Gallery. Now we have to move 155km to the east, where you'll find the Coliseum of northern Italy, the Arena of Verona. From there we will drive 150 km east to Venice, where we will visit St. Mark's Basilica.

Now we will drive 226 km to the southwest in the city of Florence, where we make a brief city tour. The most famous place is the Ponte Vecchio, which is a bridge located in the city center near the Uffizi Gallery, where you can admire gold and silver jewelry shops. In Tuscany, there is also the Leaning Tower of Pisa, located 84 km west of Florence.

Now we'll fly 550 km south to Naples, because the city of Caserta is nearby, exactly 35 km north. Here we can see the castle, which lies in the city center and looks like the castle of Versailles. The last attraction is in Pompei, a city destroyed by a volcanic eruption. To get here, you have to drive 25.4 km to the south. The ruins are still visible today.

Now we'll fly to the two largest Italian islands, Sicily and Sardinia. On Sicily, 500 km from Naples, we can find the archeological sites of Agrigento. On Sardinia, 453 km north of Palermo, we can admire the giants' tombs, which are the largest prehistoric cult plants in Sardinia.
